

Service Designer / Design Thinker

Munich | Brussels | Abu Dhabi

You are an experienced Service Designer and Design Thinker.

You get excited about inventing new business models and designing desirable services.

You are confident solving wicked problems in a hybrid role between strategy, research, UX, design and business through a discovery driven approach.

You love building solutions that match the needs of both the end user and the company.

You thrive in a dynamic and demanding environment and love working in fast-paced teams?

You want to not only attend to clients but to inspire them.

You understand the impact of your work and strive for perfection.

WHAT YOU BRING

Typical tasks

- > Analyze and conduct customer insight interviews on immersion and validation
- > Depending on seniority, you will hold workshops on analysis and creation
- > Design service processes and interactions based on brand strategy, latest technology, business trends and customer expectations
- > Design the entire customer experience, highlighting the most exciting and innovative aspects of usability
- > Communicate service concepts in visually appealing and informative blueprints
- > Think holistically, and inspire with brilliant performance
- > Collaborate with interdisciplinary teams and support various stakeholders with expertise in service design
- > Define the service touchpoints for the experts who implement them

Your profile

- > Creative approach to inventing and designing outstanding user experience
- > Strong and secure pen-to-pixel visualization capabilities
- > Comfort with documenting and communicating state-of-the-art end-to-end user experiences

- > Strong technical skills (Adobe CS, Onscreen Prototyping Tools, your favorite tools, etc.) and an interest in shaping the state of the art
- > Practical experience in the application of service design methods (e.g. Contextual Inquiry, Competitor Benchmark, Stakeholder Map, Personas, Customer Journey, Service Blueprint, System Map, Wireframes, User Stories, Experience Flows, Enactment, etc.)
- > Enthusiasm for current trends, service design practice, and how advances in technology affect everyday life
- > Reflective critical evaluation of tools and methods for successful achievement of project goals
- > Ambition to take a leading role in the service design community
- > Entrepreneurial DNA
- > Excellent spoken and written language skills in German and English

What you bring into the team

- > At least 5 years experience in your area of focus
- > Ideally experience with large and/or demanding companies
